

In my lifetime I have seen the variety and quality of broadcast media significantly decline, despite the increase in their numbers. Allowing one entity to own or control a large number of media outlets cannot help but cause a homogenization of content that ultimately limits cultural richness and diversity of opinion. For this reason, I urge the commission to not allow this trend to continue, but to instead start to decentralize the ownership of broadcast media.

Thank you